

As at present, there is no library or reading room maintained for public use. However, it is being proposed to start a library at the Consumer Grievance Redressal forum. This will go a long way in providing required information to the consumers at large to know more about the power sector in general and the activities of HESCOM in particular. The consumer visiting above forum can go through various information pertaining to the company as well as electricity sector.